

The Center for Sacramento History in association with the Sacramento History Foundation presents

Remaking California Breaking Political Gridlock

*Wednesday, May 4, 2011 at 7:00 pm
Jean Runyon Little Theater, Memorial Auditorium
1515 J Street, Sacramento*

Remaking California: Breaking Political Gridlock

Wednesday, May 4, 2011, 7:00 p.m.

Jean Runyon Little Theater, Memorial Auditorium
1515 J Street, Sacramento
$5 Suggested Donation at the Door

A panel discussion by contributors to the recent book Remaking California: Reclaiming the Public Good, on the causes of California's governmental gridlock, the effects on its citizens and environment, and prospects for restoring a healthy democracy.

The panel includes: Dr. Jeffrey Lustig, professor of government at CSUS; Dan Walters, columnist for the Sacramento Bee; Lenny Goldberg, executive director of the California Tax Reform Association; and Osha Meserve, a Sacramento attorney specializing in environmental matters.

The panel will sign copies of the book, Remaking California, which will be available for purchase that evening.

The event is open to the public; a $5 suggested donation will be taken at the door. Questions, please call (916) 808-7072 or visit www.centerforsacramentohistory.org for more information.

551 Sequoia Pacific Blvd
Sacramento, CA 95811