Devoted to the Union: Sacramento and the Civil War
150 years after the Civil War, the Center for Sacramento History examines how Sacramentans reacted and responded to the conflict. Historian Glenna Matthews will deliver a lecture entitled, "The Civil War at 150: Remembering the Sacramento and California Stories," and will sign copies of her book, The Golden State in the Civil War. Teacher Karen Richey will discuss her award-winning Civil War curriculum, and a new photographic exhibition will be unveiled. Please join us!

Center for Sacramento History

551 Sequoia Pacific Blvd.
Sacramento, CA 95811
Thursday, January 16, 2014
6:00 p.m. Donor Reception
7:00 p.m. Lecture

ADVANCE TICKET SALES ONLY and LIMITED SEATING AVAILABLE!

Tickets are $15.00 per person.

Donor packages are available for $100.00 and include 2 tickets to the author reception & lecture, a signed copy of Dr. Matthew's book, and light refreshments. A portion of the package is a tax deductible gift to the Sacramento History Foundation.

Tickets may be purchased by visiting the Center's website: www.centerforsacramentohistory.org.

Questions, please call (916) 808-7072.

Image Credit: Sgt. Miner Scofield in Uniform, Mead B. Kibbey Collection, 1983/213/001